Family Dynasty Advisors Announces the Launch of the Tactical Advantage ETF (Ticker: FDAT) – A Dynamic Solution for Today's Unpredictable Markets

Lubbock, Texas 4/27/2023 – Family Dynasty Advisors, a leading provider of innovative investment solutions, announced the listing of the Tactical Advantage ETF (FDAT) on the NYSE Arca stock exchange. This actively managed exchange-traded fund (ETF) is designed to help investors navigate the ever-changing market landscape.

The Tactical Advantage ETF (FDAT) aims to mitigate risks and generate returns in various market environments by utilizing a multi-strategy investment approach that adjusts to different market conditions. This approach seeks capital appreciation while managing risk, employing diverse investment strategies, including Market Trend, Counter Trend, and Volatility.

"With market volatility being a constant concern for investors, we created the Tactical Advantage ETF to offer an adaptable and interesting alternative to the traditional 60/40 portfolio," said Mike Caffey, sub-advisor of the fund. "By employing a combination of strategies and actively adjusting allocations based on market conditions, our fund is designed to reduce exposure to volatility by increasing or decreasing the cash position. FDAT is built on the premise that the most advantageous way to maximize long-term growth is by minimizing short-term losses."

The Tactical Advantage ETF (FDAT) offers the following key features:

- Adaptable investment approach: FDAT focuses on capital appreciation and active risk management by employing investment strategies that adjust to various market conditions.
- Diverse strategies in action: FDAT identifies and follows long-term market trends, takes advantage of short-term price fluctuations, and strategically allocates assets during periods of increased market volatility.
- Dynamic asset allocation: FDAT adjusts allocations based on market conditions, increasing exposure to assets with lower correlations while simultaneously seeking to minimize the impact of market drawdowns
